

Ethiopia secures multiple deals with China amounting to $1.7 billion

According to a statement from Ethiopia's Finance Ministry, the majority of the agreements were made with Chinese companies at a recent two-day investment conference in Addis Ababa. Ethiopia's economic reform strategy, which includes restructuring its $8.4 billion external debt and liberalizing its currency, has been a huge part of the country's growth plan. Business Insider.

China-Ethiopia Media Collaboration Deepening with Launch of "China Hour"

Ethiopia and China launched a new chapter with media partnership at the "Seeing China - Fostering China-Ethiopia Media Collaboration" event held at Addis Ababa University. The event marked the launch of "China Hour" on Ethiopian state television and introduced a showcase of Chinese audiovisual content across several Ethiopian media platforms. Ethiopian News Agency.

Ethiopia, China commit to deepen judicial cooperation to support reform and modernization

Ethiopia and China have agreed to strengthen judicial cooperation as part of broader efforts to modernize legal systems and enhance bilateral relations. President of the Federal Supreme Court of Ethiopia, Mr. Tewodros Mihret, is leading a high-level delegation on a week-long working visit to the People's Republic of China, which began on May 10, 2025. On May 13, Mr. Tewodros held productive discussions in Beijing with Mr. Zhang Jun, President of the Supreme People's Court of China. Fana Broadcasting Corporate S.C.

Egypt looks to China for cash injection to lift textiles industry

A delegation from China's textile industry visited Egypt this week as part of the Cairo government's strategy to attract investment to its fabric and garment businesses, local media has reported. The group of 37 Chinese business leaders and representatives from 25 companies. AGBI.

Tanzanian youth embrace Chinese night classes as path to opportunity

As demand for Chinese language skills grows across business, education, and government sectors in Tanzania, Mandarin instruction is opening new doors for Tanzanian youth. #GLOBALink. Xinhua.

India enters the race for Africa against China

India has taken a bold step to strengthen its influence in Africa by holding its first-ever joint military exercises with 11 African countries, dubbed AIKEYME 2025. Conducted off the coast of Tanzania, these drills focused on anti-piracy operations and naval coordination. India is already deepening military cooperation with Ethiopia, Nigeria, Mauritius, and the Seychelles, supplying military equipment and supporting officer training programs. News Az.

US Senate questions Kenya's loyalty after Ruto China trip

Lawmakers in the United States Senate are questioning Kenya's loyalty to America following President

William Ruto's recent trip to China. Against the backdrop of the U.S.-China trade war and larger East-West tensions, Ruto last month visited the Asian country at the invitation of President Xi Jinping to discuss China's investment in Kenya's infrastructural projects, trade relations, and regional peace. Citizen Digital.

Kenya, China in talks to expand tea access to Chinese market

As a follow-up of the recent State Visit to the People's Republic of China, President William Ruto met Fuzhou Benny Tea Industries Chairman Zhang Chaobin on Tuesday to discuss ways of increasing access of Kenyan tea to the Chinese market. Benny Tea Industries ranks among the top three companies in China's supply chain in tea production and retail. Various types of refined speciality teas are the core of Benny's products. Citizen Digital.

US senator calls for reassessment of Kenya's ties over Ruto's comment in China

Idaho Senator Jim Risch has called for the re-evaluation of US relations with Kenya over President William Ruto's remarks while in China. Risch, who also serves as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, indicated that Ruto pledged allegiance to Beijing during his recent state visit. The senator told the committee that Ruto's comments directly endorsed Kenya's embrace of China. To elaborate on his point, Jim Risch vowed to submit Ruto's speech during his State Visit to China. People Daily.

Chinese FM meets with new Sudanese counterpart

Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi met with Omer Mohamed Ahmed Siddig, the outgoing Sudanese ambassador to China and the newly appointed foreign minister of Sudan, in Beijing on Wednesday. Wang, also a member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party of China Central Committee, congratulated Siddig on his assumption of office as Sudanese foreign minister, and expressed appreciation for his contributions to promoting the development of China-Sudan relations during his tenure as ambassador to China. Xinhua.

China-Sudan strategic partnership reiterated

As this year marks the 10th anniversary of the China-Sudan strategic partnership, Foreign Minister Wang Yi urged both nations to implement the important consensus reached by their leaders to further develop bilateral ties for the benefits of both peoples. He made the remarks on Wednesday when meeting with the outgoing Sudanese Ambassador to China Omer Siddig, who is about to conclude his tenure and return home assuming the post as Sudan's new foreign minister. China Daily.

Delegation's Morocco visit helps cement relationship

At the invitation of the National Rally of Independents of Morocco, Li Shulei, a member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party of China Central Committee, led a CPC delegation to visit Morocco from Monday to Wednesday in a bid to promote the countries' ties. During the visit, Li, who is also head of the Publicity Department of the CPC Central Committee, held separate meetings with senior officials of the North African country, including Aziz Akhannouch, Moroccan prime minister and head of the NRI, and Rachid Talbi El Alami, speaker of the House of Representatives. During the meetings, Li emphasized that China-Morocco relations are at their best in history. China Daily.

In 1960, Morocco's Crown Prince Hassan urged UN to welcome China

"Is it fair and just that 600 million people, a third of the world's population, are simply not among us?" In 1960, then Crown Prince of Morocco, who later became King Hassan II, stood before the United Nations and made this exact challenge. He called on member states to admit the People's Republic of China, saying that including 600 million more people would boost global cooperation more than excluding them ever could. Xinhua.

Courtesy meeting with a focus on trade and customs strengthens Mozambique – China cooperation ties

A recent meeting between the Secretary of State for Trade, António do Rosário Grispos, and the Vice-Minister of Customs of China, Wang Lingjun, aimed to strengthen cooperation ties between Mozambique and China, with a focus on trade facilitation and sharing of good customs practices. Meanwhile, the Ministry of Economy is promoting training aimed at the public and private sectors on the mechanisms for registering companies and the procedures for exporting products to the Chinese market. Club of Mozambique.

Ghanaian official hails partnership with Chinese firm to boost healthcare delivery

The partnership between the Ghana Health Service (GHS) and the Health Community of West Africa (HCOWA), a Ghana-based Chinese private firm, will help enhance healthcare delivery in the West African country, a health official has said. Lawrence Ofori-Boadu, director of the Institutional Care Division of the GHS, made the remarks late Monday during the launch of the HCOWA Medical and Academic Exchange Committee. The committee aims to promote collaborative research, academic exchange, innovation, and institutional partnerships. Xinhua.

Chinese-built deep seaport becomes beacon of hope for Cameroon

On May 9, a 400-meter-long ultra-large container ship was moored in the Gulf of Guinea between the deep sea and the blue sky. As one of the world's largest container ships with a capacity of 24,346 TEU, the MSC Türkiye elicited awe and admiration. "Kribi is now one of only five ports in sub-Saharan Africa able to host ships of this size," said Philippe Labonne, chairman of Africa Global Logistics, at the commissioning ceremony of the second phase of the Kribi Deep Seaport. Xinhua.