

China-Africa cooperation charts course for continental agricultural modernization

Under the frameworks of the Forum on China-Africa Cooperation and the Belt and Road Initiative, China-Africa agricultural cooperation has yielded fruitful results in recent years. Through technology transfer, infrastructure development, equipment upgrade and industrial chain expansion, China has substantially boosted Africa's agricultural productivity and sustainable development capacities, injecting strong momentum into the continent's modernization drive. Xinhua.

US at a crossroads in Africa as China rekindles ties with Kenya

Kenya's shift towards closer ties with China is jeopardising its long-standing strategic partnership with the United States. While Kenya has historically served as a key US ally in Africa, hosting the largest US embassy in sub-Saharan Africa and playing a significant role in counter-terrorism operations, its increasing engagement with Beijing poses a challenge to US influence. The Star.

China's tourism boom offers fresh momentum for China-Africa cooperation

China's domestic travel sector is seeing robust growth. In just the first quarter of 2025, Chinese residents made approximately 1.79 billion domestic trips, a year-on-year increase of 375 million. This surge underscores tourism's growing role as a driver of economic recovery, job creation, and social vitality. But beyond national borders, China's tourism momentum is also opening new doors for international cooperation, including with Africa. CGTN.

China-Africa cooperation charts new path for continental agricultural modernization

Under the frameworks of the Forum on China-Africa Cooperation and the Belt and Road Initiative, China-Africa agricultural cooperation has yielded fruitful results in recent years. Xinhua.

China turns to PPPs as a 'yellow brick road' solution to fund big projects in Africa

China has turned to public-private partnerships (PPP) to finance big African infrastructure projects under a grand China investment initiative, a shift experts said could reduce Beijing's financial risks while easing debt pressures on African countries. By granting Chinese companies long-term operating rights in exchange for construction financing, the model represents a pivot from direct government loans through China's policy banks under its Belt and Road Initiative, Beijing's plan to build global trade and infrastructure links. South China Morning Post.

Cameroonian ambassador: China offers good energy solutions for Africa

Dozens of African ambassadors visited SANY Group's photovoltaic manufacturing base in Zhuzhou City, Hunan Province. SANY, a privately owned company, is China's largest heavy machinery manufacturer, with a presence in more than 150 countries and regions. During their visit, the ambassadors expressed strong interest in energy solutions designed for areas with limited or no access to power grid, such as mines, remote construction sites, rural communities and schools. CGTN.

Nigeria Localizes Production of Chinese Weapons with Norinco's Help

Traditionally “pro-Western” Nigeria has signed a memorandum of understanding with the Chinese company Norinco to launch localized production of ammunition and to modernize military equipment. The South China Morning Post reported on this. The agreement was signed during Nigerian Defense Minister Bello Matawalle’s visit to China in early May and covers the construction of ammunition production lines, maintenance, and modernization of military equipment, tank repairs, and engineering support. Militarnyi.

China to establish electric vehicle factories in Nigeria — Envoy

The Chinese Ambassador to Nigeria, His Excellency Yu Dunhai, has stressed the need for deeper collaboration between China and Nigeria to unlock the potential of Nigeria’s solid minerals sector through the establishment of electric vehicle (EV) factories in the country. Speaking during a courtesy visit to the Minister of Solid Minerals Development, Dr Dele Alake, at the weekend, Ambassador Dunhai described Nigeria as a great country endowed with vast natural resources. Nigerian Tribune.

African youth embrace media, storytelling as bridges shaping Africa-China dreams

Kiwalabye Timothy, a Ugandan farmer and digital content creator, never imagined that his humble posts about soil and seeds would ripple across the world. Sharing his creative journey before Ethiopia's media leaders in the national capital of Addis Ababa, he credited the China-Africa collaborative spirit for transforming his life path. Xinhua.

China automaker debuts NEVs in Ethiopia

Chinese automaker GAC debuted two new energy vehicles in Ethiopia on Saturday, expected to boost Ethiopia's green transport transition. The two vehicles, AION Y Plus and ES9, offer both pure electric and plug-in hybrid options for consumers, and more locally tailored vehicles will be introduced by the company to the Ethiopian market in the future, Wei Haigang, president of GAC International, said during the unveiling ceremony in Addis Ababa. China Daily.

Chinese car manufacturer introduces EV brand to Ethiopian market

Chinese automaker Guangzhou Automobile Group Co., Ltd (GAC Group) has introduced two of its electric vehicle (EV) models to the Ethiopian market, marking the Chinese car brand's entry into the East African country. The company unveiled its AION Y and ES9 models on Saturday at a launch event in Addis Ababa, the capital of Ethiopia. Xinhua

Chinese language proficiency competition for university students held in Egypt

The 24th "Chinese Bridge" Chinese proficiency competition for Egyptian university students concluded Saturday in the Egyptian capital Cairo. The competition, hosted by the Chinese Embassy in Egypt and organized by the Cairo-based Chinese Bridge Club, consisted of three parts: a keynote speech, a knowledge quiz, and a talent show. People's Daily Online.

Egypt's SCZone Chairperson, Guangdong Governor discuss deeper cooperation

The Chairperson of Egypt’s Suez Canal Economic Zone (SCZone), Walid Gamal El-Din, met with a high-level delegation from China’s Guangdong Province, led by its Governor Wang Weizhong, to discuss enhancing joint cooperation, the SCZone announced in a statement. The purpose of the meeting was to explore collaboration in the industrial, logistics, services, and port sectors. Daily News Egypt.

A night of melody and connection, China's Pingtan art enchants Tanzania

On a breezy evening by the Indian Ocean, the Chinese Embassy in Dar es Salaam became a stage for cultural connection. More than 40 Tanzanian officials, diplomats, and cultural figures gathered to experience Pingtan, a traditional storytelling art from Jiangnan, or southeastern China. Performed by a troupe from China's Jiangsu Province, the event was more than a cultural showcase and became a heartfelt exchange. Xinhua.

China's Backdoor: How Morocco Became Key in the Battery Trade War

Morocco has become a prime destination for large-scale Chinese investments in electric vehicle battery production, raising questions about whether this represents a genuine opportunity for industrialization or simply makes the country a pawn in the geopolitical rivalry between China and the West. Morocco World News.

Ghana holds Chinese language contest to spot young talents

The Ghana division final of the 24th "Chinese Bridge" Chinese proficiency contest was held on Friday in Cape Coast of Ghana's Central Region, with many young talents capturing the hearts and minds of the audience. The contest, hosted by the Confucius Institute at the University of Cape Coast (UCC), assembled students from the University of Ghana, the UCC, and the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, who showcased their Chinese language skills. Xinhua.

China-Senegal trade ties forge path to shared growth

In Dakar, Senegal's capital, customers crowd Rachid Cham's appliance store, browsing shelves lined with Chinese-made products. Nearly 10,000 km away in Yiwu city in eastern China, Senegalese businessman Ababacar Niang navigates warehouses and showrooms, preparing shipments to Africa. Xinhua.

Zimbabwe's legislators seek to study Chinese economic development experience: parliament speaker

China's development experience offers valuable reference for Zimbabwe, which the southern African country aims to take advantage of through stronger friendship and deep study of Chinese economic sectors, said Jacob Mudenda, Speaker of Zimbabwe's Parliament. Mudenda led a delegation to visit China from Monday to Sunday at the invitation of Zhao Leji, chairman of China's National People's Congress Standing Committee. Bastillepost.

Rwanda-China trade doubles as exports to China increase fivefold

At the same time, Rwanda's total exports increased from $1.4 billion to $2.5 billion, a 75% rise, indicating that China is outpacing other trade partners in growth. China also became the top foreign investor in Rwanda, with over $300 million in active investments and more than 18,000 full-time jobs created. The New Times Rwanda.

China-aided overpass to improve mobility in Mauritanian capital

Sino-Mauritanian Friendship Overpass, a China-aided project, will significantly ease traffic congestion in Nouakchott, the capital of Mauritania, improve mobility for residents, and provide long-term impetus for Mauritania's economic growth, a senior official has said. Minister of Equipment and Transport Ely Ould El Veirik made the remarks at the completion ceremony for the project held on Thursday in Nouakchott. Xinhua.

Chinese Ambassador to Mauritius Huang Shifang Pays a Courtesy Call on the Mauritian Prime Minister

On May 15, Ambassador Huang Shifang paid a courtesy call on the Mauritian Prime Minister, Dr Navinchandra Ramgoolam. Ambassador Huang noted that China and Mauritius enjoy a long history of traditional friendship. In recent years, bilateral relations have gained momentum with consolidated political trust and fruitful results in exchanges and cooperation in various fields. Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The People's Republic of China.