

Africa Day 2025: China-Africa friendship renewed with new vitality

May 25 marks Africa Day, a celebration of unity, independence, and shared identity across the African continent and among its global diaspora. In a special interview commemorating this occasion, Ambassador Rahmat Allah Mohamed Osman, the African Union's Permanent Representative to China, reflected on the significance of the day, the enduring legacy of African liberation, and the growing momentum behind China-Africa cooperation. CGTN.

China, Africa benefit from sharing governance experience

As the world navigates the complexities of development in the 21st century, the relationship between China and Africa continues to evolve as a powerful example of South-South cooperation. Both regions face pressing challenges — ranging from poverty eradication to sustainable growth — but also share a deep commitment to building equitable and resilient societies. In this context, governance becomes a cornerstone of progress. China Daily.

Cameroonian diplomat calls for China-Africa cooperation on maintaining multipolar global order

Cameroon's ambassador to China Martin Mpana on Saturday called on China and Africa to work hand in hand to maintain a global order with multipolar characteristic. Attending a ceremony held in Beijing to celebrate Africa Day 2025, Mpana stressed the importance for China and Africa to promote justice and equity with concerted efforts in an interview with China Global Television Network (CGTN). Bastillepost.

African ambassadors share views on China-Africa cooperation

On the occasion of Africa Day celebration, CGTN exclusively interviewed several African ambassadors to China – including Rahmat Allah Mohamed Osman, permanent representative of the African Union to China. They shared their views on China-Africa cooperation and how the continent's modernization can be advanced through strong ties with China. CGTN.

China, Nigeria strengthen ties in agriculture, cultural diplomacy

The Chinese Cultural Centre in Abuja recently played host to a vibrant celebration of cultural diplomacy and agricultural cooperation, marking the United Nations International Tea Day. The “Tea for Harmony — Yaji Cultural Salon” brought together distinguished guests and friends of China-Nigeria relations to celebrate the shared values of harmony and cultural exchange through the lens of tea culture. MSN.

China Day shows fruitful cooperation at Cote d'Ivoire's intl agricultural fair

A special China Day event was held Saturday at the 7th Abidjan International Agriculture and Animal Resources Exhibition, showcasing the fruitful cooperation between the two countries. Addressing the event, Ivorian Minister of State and Minister of Agriculture and Rural Development Kobenan Kouassi

Adjoumani said that in less than half a century, China has achieved spectacular transformation, particularly in the fields of agricultural and agro-industrial development. China Daily.

24th "Chinese Bridge" Chinese proficiency competition held in Benin

Contestants perform a dance during the 24th "Chinese Bridge" Chinese proficiency competition for Beninese college students at a Chinese cultural center in Cotonou, Benin, May 23, 2025. Contestants perform a tea ceremony during the 24th "Chinese Bridge" Chinese proficiency competition for Beninese college students at a Chinese cultural center in Cotonou, Benin, May 23, 2025. People's Daily Online.

Q&A: 'Juba-Rumbek road project halted over unpaid dues'-Chinese envoy

China's ambassador to South Sudan said construction on the Juba-Rumbek highway, the country's first oil-for-infrastructure project, has been suspended due to overdue payments. In an exclusive interview with Radio Tamazuj, Ambassador Ma Qiang acknowledged China's role in developing South Sudan's infrastructure but confirmed work on remaining sections of the key road had stalled. Radio Tamazuj.

China commits support to improve women's health in Sierra Leone through South-South cooperation

A $2 million commitment from the People's Republic of China will harness the power of South-South cooperation to reduce maternal deaths and prevent and treat cervical cancer in Sierra Leone. Over the course of the two-year project, to be implemented in Sierra Leone's Western Area province, UNFPA and the Sierra Leone Ministry of Health and Sanitation will partner with a Chinese national institution with relevant expertise to improve the quality of emergency obstetric care services for women with high-risk pregnancies. UNPF.

China's FAST and South Africa's MeerKAT team up to refresh the limits of Galactic observation

Recently, an international team of astronomers from China's top Tsinghua University, along with collaborators from Italy, Australia, Germany, and other countries, conducted high-precision observations of Galactic globular clusters using China's Five-hundred-meter Aperture Spherical Radio Telescope (FAST) and South Africa's MeerKAT radio telescope array. Global Times.

Nigeria, China implementing 10 partnership actions to deepen China-Africa cooperation – Amb Dunhai

Dunhai disclosed this on Saturday while speaking at the 2025 'Tea for Harmony Yaji Cultural Salon, tagged: "Tea in Nature's Whisper, Aroma of Picturesque Jiangnan" at the China Cultural Centre in Abuja, Nigeria. He said: "Last year, the two heads of state met in Beijing and jointly agreed to upgrade bilateral relations to a Comprehensive Strategic Partnership, opening a new chapter in bilateral relations. Media Trust Limited.