

Kenya hosts forum to boost China–Africa agricultural, industrial cooperation

The day-long conference was hosted by Nairobi-based Alliance for a Green Revolution in Africa (AGRA), Beijing Jingwa Agricultural Science and Technology Innovation Center, the International Livestock Research Institute and the Finance Center for South-South Cooperation. Capital Business.

China increasing EV foothold across the continent

Chinese EV giant BYD recently announced plans to nearly triple its dealership network in South Africa by next year, as it seeks to expand its market share in the country, according to Steve Chang, general manager of BYD South Africa. ESI Africa.

PMI Sub-Saharan Africa leads high-level delegation to China to study large-scale project delivery

The delegation—comprising officials from South Africa’s Department of Public Works and Infrastructure, corporate executives, academia, and professional bodies—will engage with major Chinese firms including ZTE, China Communications Construction Company, CNPC Engineering, Hengbao Co., and Tsinghua University. Capital Business.

NICArb, CIETAC sign pact to boost Nigeria-China arbitration ties

In a major step towards strengthening arbitration and trade relations between Nigeria and China, the Nigerian Institute of Chartered Arbitrators has entered into a landmark cooperation agreement with the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission. Punch Newspaper Nigeria.

Chinese-Moroccan Joint Venture Inaugurates EV Battery Parts Plant

A Chinese-Moroccan joint venture announced on Wednesday the inauguration of a new factory for electric car battery components, the first of its kind in the North African country. The complex will ultimately have a production “capacity equivalent to 70 GWh per year, enough to equip nearly one million electric vehicles annually”, according to operator Cobco, a joint venture between the Moroccan royal family’s holding company Al Mada and the Chinese firm CNGR Advanced Materials. China Global South Project.

Government says state owner will take delivery of two more ships in 2028

Egypt’s state-owned National Navigation Co (NNC) has added more bulkers to its order at China’s Jiangsu Hantong Ship Heavy Industry. The Egyptian government said the firm will take delivery of two extra 82,000-dwt cargo ships in September and November 2028. TradeWinds.

Tesla’s Morocco Office, gateway to African market, scaling up competition against Chinese EV

Tesla’s Africa expansion through its new Morocco office opens doorways for its vehicles to sell in more than 50 countries that the North African country has free-trade agreements with, said the “China Global South” news outlet. The U.S. EV giant’s Africa expansion intensifies a battle for dominance in Africa’s emerging electric vehicle market, where Chinese firms are aggressively establishing their sales networks while also targeting the lucrative European market, added the Chinese independent media platform. North Africa Post.

Chinese FM, Mozambican counterpart exchange congratulations on 50-year ties

Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi exchanged congratulations on Wednesday with Mozambican Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation Maria Manuela dos Santos Lucas on the 50th anniversary of diplomatic ties. Wang, also a member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party of China Central Committee, noted that China and Mozambique share a traditional friendship. CGTN.

Mozambique's ambassador to China on bilateral ties

June 25 marks the 50th anniversary of diplomatic ties between China and Mozambique. In an interview with CGTN, Mozambique's Ambassador to China, Maria Gustavo, praised the friendship between the two countries. She stressed Mozambique's support for China, and shared her insights on the great potential of people-to-people exchanges. CGTN.

Ghana Mining Ban Followed Online Surge in Anti-China Moves

A coordinated online campaign of bot-driven disinformation fuelled anti-Chinese sentiment in the months preceding Ghana's historic decision to bar foreigners from its domestic gold trade, according to researchers and evidence reported by AFP. News Central Television.

Senegal Signs Transport Deal in China

Senegalese Prime Minister Ousmane Sonko signed a deal aimed at transforming his country's public transport sector during his state visit to China. The deal would see the establishment of an industrial assembly facility that will produce gas and electric buses. It aims to replace 40,000 diesel buses. China Global South Project.

Chinese audiovisual works exhibited at festival in Tunisia

As part of the 25th Arab Radio and Television Festival, a Chinese audiovisual works presentation was held Tuesday in Yasmine Hammamet, a resort town in northeast Tunisia. More than 100 Chinese audiovisual works, including TV series, documentaries and cartoons, were exhibited at the event. People's Daily Online.

Liberia and China commit to deepening cooperation

The People's Republic of China and the Government of Liberia have committed to deepening friendship and cooperation in the areas of poverty reduction, health, and public welfare, amid the graduation of several Liberian students who have benefited from various Chinese government scholarships and the China-Liberia bilateral scholarships. New Dawn Liberia.